

Green Art Gallery

Green Art Gallery program features artists working across diverse media, whose practices are rigorously researched, idea-led, and representative of our current moment. The gallery now represents a multi-generational mix of artists from the Middle East, North Africa, South Asia and beyond, including Turkish artists Hale Tenger and Hera Büyüktasçıyan; Iranian artists Kamrooz Aram, Nazgol Ansarinia and Maryam Hoseini; Lebanese artist Chaouki Choukini; Brazilian artist Ana Mazzei; and Shadi Habib Allah, Seher Shah, and Alessandro Balteo-Yazbeck, who are Palestinian, Pakistani and Venezuelan respectively. In this geographic mix, the gallery reflects Dubai's position as a cosmopolitan—as well as artistic—entrepôt.
