

THEARTBLOG

An insider's view of the UAE's art scene

Edited by
Anna Seaman

Provided photo Palestinian artist Hazem Harb, continues his live art performance on JBR, Dubai, which goes on all weekend Courtesy Hazem Harb' Studio

Live art on The Beach, JBR continues

Anna Seaman | April 11, 2014

Hazem Harb is continuing to make good progress on the final painting in his Al Baseera series. Harb is taking part in an artistic performance programme called Live Artist Window at The Beach, the new leisure destination in Dubai's Jumeirah Beach Residence until tomorrow.

From 9am-1pm and from 4pm-10pm, you can see him painting this geometric abstract work. Harb is a prominent Palestinian artist who has just sold a series of photographs to the British Museum in London and was one of the installation artists who took pride of place in Athr Gallery's booth at Art Dubai last month.

* Harb will be painting in the 'Live Artist Window' at The Piazza, The Beach opposite JBR from 9:00am - 1:00pm and 4:00pm - 10:00pm today and tomorrow