

Today is the 104th birthday of one of Egypt's most prominent artists of the 20th century, Hussein Bicar حسين بيكار , Let's discover more about his life & his amazing paintings.

Hussein Bicar spent more than 60 years of his life teaching art at schools and universities and then through the press, after graduating from the Cairo higher school of fine arts in 1934.

He is credited for initiating a style of journalistic art that elevated illustrating for news papers to a level close to that of the fine art, he is known for his simple and clear style reflecting the influence of #Pharaonic art with its harmony, serenity and mystic.

