Memorial Service Honoring Late Fine Artist Nazir Nabaa

Under the patronage of Mr. Mohammad Al-Ahmad, the Minister of Culture, the Directorate of Fine Arts in collaboration with the Federation of Syrian Fine Art held the (man, artist and teacher) event marking one year after the death of artist Nazir Nabaa, at Al-Assad National Library in Damascus.

The late Syrian artist Nazir Nabaa was considered one of the most important Syrian creative fine artists. In 2005 the artist Nazir was granted an Order of Merit by President Bashar al-Assad.

In a statement to reporters, Mr. Tawfiq Al-Imam, Deputy Minister of Culture, stressed that the duty of the Ministry was the honoring of such creative artists, and the Ministry had always done such initiatives of honoring artistic, literary, intellectual and political figures.

Artist Bassam Kosa pointed out that artist Nazir Nabaa was an integral equation artistically, humanly and morally.

The event was accompanied by ceremonial fine art gallery of paintings of the late artist Nazir and a number of prominent artists, in addition to the distribution of copies of the book (Nazir Nabaa: a man, artist and teacher).

It is worth mentioning that the ceremony was attended by Dr. Buthainah Shaaban, the media advisor to the presidency of the Syrian Arab Republic, a number of fine artists and those interested in cultural and creative movement.
