NEWS / Beirut Art Fair 2015

Emmagoss art gallery is representing this year a selection of works by the Guiragossian family artists entitled "GENERATIONS". Starting with the family patriarch and modernist master Paul Guiragossian to his children Emmanuel, Jean-Paul and Manuella followed by the grandchildren and new comers into the art world Paul Gossian and Marc Guiragossian, the exhibition will be showcasing the artistic skills and talents that's been passed on from generation to generation while each individual artist has studied and trained in different schools of art around the world and developed their own methods and personality. Lebanon always being the main base of the Guiragossians, the family artists have come from Berlin, New York and Beijing to exhibit together in the Beirut Art Fair 2015.
