

LASALLE College of the Arts presents

artist talk

"The journey of an artist: Beirut-Montreal-Nîmes-Paris-Beirut"

Hannibal Srouji

Born in Lebanon, Hanibal Srouji, left his country in 1976 because of a civil war which raged until 1990. Srouji studied Fine Arts in Montreal, Canada and in Nîmes France. Back in Beirut since 2010, he shares his time between his artistic practice as a painter and as a professor at the Lebanese American University. Hanibal will share about his life journey and his artistic practice. While presenting his work, he will explain the connection with both his personal history and the history of Lebanon.
